

PLEASANTON PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS

Chinese Film Night – MISSING HOME

- With English Subtitles & FREE Admission

Beijing's Hutongs, the traditional city structure with a unique ancient architectural style dating back to the Yuan dynasty (1206 – 1341) have been fading into the shade and greatly destroyed after massive demolishing under the rapid economic boom in China. Missing Home explores the complexities of modernization and development in urban environments, and the effect it has on individual lives.

The film screen starts at 6:30 on September 29th, followed by a Q & A with the film maker, Weimin Zhang. Professor Zhang is an award-winning film maker for numerous films including The House of Spirit, Grandfather Ge, The Homebound Crane, CEO and Green Mountain in a Drawer, The Opium War and the Legends of 100 Year Old of Chinese Business, Nushu – The Secret Writing of Women in China.

September 29th, 2016 Thursday 6:30PM

Pleasanton Public Library
400 Old Bernal Ave. Pleasanton California 94566
(925) 931-3400